Colour in the Home

AN INSPIRATIONAL TALK BY JOA STUDHOLME,
COLOUR CONSULTANT FROM FARROW & BALL

The colour you choose to transform the character of a room is probably the most significant decision you make when decorating.

Colour is very personal. It can create an emotional response and atmosphere as well as add impact and lift a scheme. It is important to understand how colours work together.

If you have always wanted more confidence with colour, but are not sure where to start - an inspirational talk, by Joa Studholme, Colour Consultant from Farrow & Ball will guide you through this fascinating subject.

See colour in a whole new light with this illustrated talk, explaining how, through the simple use of colour, you can achieve striking results. Create traditional or contemporary interiors, change the shape of a room, use colour to emphasize or detract from a structural feature and understand the use of different light sources.

Learn how to approach decorating and develop your knowledge of colour families and paint finishes. Discover the endless possibilities of using wallpaper and paint together to create the perfect scheme. The talk combines inspirational ideas with helpful tips, providing you with the confidence to make informed colour choices and take the worry out of that all-important, often overwhelming decision.

'Colour in the Home' will take place on Thursday 11th October at The George Hotel, Cheltenham. Tickets cost £25. Guests can arrive from 6.15pm to enjoy a complimentary glass of wine and the talk will begin at 7pm.
